Alfonso Marra, who represents and defends them under power of attorney below the present petition

PREAMBLE

Mr. ... born in ... on ... and actually resident in ... by birth was italian citizen being born from both italian parents and in Italy.

Afterwards, after having emigrated to ..., he has lost the italian citizenship, he has obtained the ... one, but actually he has come back to live permanently by the habitation of

... in ... and the necessary steps are being taken for the regaining of the italian citizenship, that he will recover after being spent one year since the request.

As it can be deduced from the medical certifications in detail listed below, that are deposited together with this petition, Mr. ... is in a condition of habitual mental insanity that makes him absolutely unable to understand and to want and to care himself and his own businesses and therefore necessary and right is the appointment of a temporary and then definitive guardian, in order to ensure him adequate protection.

About the petitioner it's pointed out as it follows:

*It is specified that, even though Mr. ... actually results, officially, ... citizen, fully subsists this honourable Judge's competence, considered that according to the italian civil procedure and particularly the italian international private law, there is surely jurisdiction and competence of this italian Court because ...

All this granted and regarded, Mr ..., as above represented, domiciled and defended,
